Flexible, Durable Stand Alone Printer

The AS-960 is a high-speed, heavy-duty professional desktop address and barcode printer built with HP Inkjet Technology. It allows your organization to print crisp, professional messages including addresses, return addresses, the latest postal barcodes and personalized messages.

You can even include your company logo - all in one pass, and with 6 fixed Print Heads, you can print absolutely anywhere on your mail piece, even on C4 envelopes.

This powerhouse printer moves with speeds of up to 26,000 envelopes per hour.

Ease of Use

All of the manual functions of the AS-960 are controlled by Neopost's address quality management software, eliminating the cumbersome operation that casual operators are faced with.

You can easily select new jobs and run them with ease. Our software provides an intuitive print dashboard interface, offering instant feedback on the status of your print jobs.

Image Is Everything

Our patented HP printing technology produces true 600x600 dpi printed images. This means sharp, crisp, more easily readable addresses and a professional appearance, with a print area of up to 4.5 inches. With the AS-960, you get a clear, consistent, readable barcode that allows your document to fly through the Canada Post's reading systems, increasing your productivity, while lowering your printing costs.

Application Versatility

The AS-960's robust integrated feeder provides the greatest flexibility in mailing applications, supporting envelopes, postcards, newspapers, brochures, newsletters, calendars, booklets and catalogs up to 10mm thick.
